AFTER.

After the shower, the tranquil sun;
After the snow, the emerald leaves;
Silver stars when the day is done;
After the harvest, golden sheaves.

After the clouds, the violet sky;
After the tempest, the lull of waves;
Quiet woods, when the winds go by;
After the battle, peaceful graves.

After the knell, the wedding bells;
After the bud, the radiant rose;
Joyful greetings from sad farewells;
After our weepings, sweet repose.

After the burden, the blissful meed;
After the flight, the downy nest;

ANECDOTE OF VELPAU.

An anecdote is told of Velpau, the eminent French surgeon, who died a few years ago. He had successfully performed, on a little child five years old, a perilous operation. The mother came to him and said:

"Monsieur, my son is saved and I really know not how to express my gratitude; allow me, however, to present you with this pocket book, embroidered with my own hands."

"Oh! madame," replied Velpau, sharply, "my art is not merely a question of feeling. My life has its requirements like yours Dress, even, which is a luxury for you, is necessary for me. Allow me, therefore, to refuse your charming little present, in exchange for a more substantial remuneration."

"But, monsieur, what remuneration do you desire? Fix the fee yourself."

"Five thousand francs, madame."

The lady very quietly opened the pocket-book, which contained ten thousand franc notes, counted out five, and politely handing them over to Velpau, retired.

A NEGRO named Ephe, who was a regular attendant at church, was proud of his Bible learning. He was sawing wood one day, while his master's son, a lad of about twelve years, was looking on, and now and then asking questions.

"Which of the apostles do you like best?" asked Ephe.

"Well, I don't know," drawled the boy.

"I likes Samson," said Ephe; "he was so strong, and piled up dem wicked folks so."

"Why, Ephe," replied the boy, "Samson wasn't one of the apostles."

Ephe put down his saw, and looked at the youngster a moment in amazement, and then asked him with an air of triumph:

"Look here, white boy, how old am you?"

"Twelve," replied the boy.

"Well, I'se forty; now, who ought to know best, I ax you dat?"

VERY DRY JOKE.—In Easton, Pa., the other evening, just as a performance in the public hall was about to end, two wags put themselves in front of the doorway with an umbrella and waited for the outcoming crowd. It was not raining at all, but when the first persons of the audience had reached the door and seen the warning umbrella, scores of hands were thrust out, coats were buttoned closely, and dresses taken up, while quite a number remained in the hall, refusing to come out on account of the rain. The "sell" was complete.

MAKING AND EXPENDING MONEY.—"Well Jim, how did you make it down South?"

"First-rate. Made plenty of money."

"What did you do with it?"

"Laid it out in houses and lots."

"Where?"

"Every place I have been where there were any."

"What kind of houses and lots?"

"Coffee-houses, and lots of whiskey."

WAGGS went to the depot of one of our railways the other evening, and finding the best car full, said in a loud tone:

"This car isn't going!"

Of course these words caused a general stampede, and Waggs took the best seat. The cars soon moved off. In the midst of the indignation, Waggs was questioned:

"You said this car wasn't going?"

"Well, it wasn't then; it is now!"

The "sold" laughed a little, but Waggs came near getting a good thrashing.

THE quality of California wheat is unequalled. During the growth of the kernel, no rain, not even a dew, moistens it. It can be transported around the globe without injury. In England its use is fast becoming a necessity. Mixed, half and half, with the damp, turgid wheat of the British Isles, it furnishes a bread greatly superior to the heavy, unpalatable loaves made of purely English grain.

A GENTLEMEN once asked a little girl, an only child, how many sisters she had, and was told "three or four." Her mother asked Mary, when they were alone, what had induced her to tell such an untruth.

"Why, mamma," cried Mary, "I didn't want him to think you were so poor that you hadn't but one child."

A CHAP in Piqua, Ohio, was married last week, his father giving invitations to a large company to attend the bridal feast. They had a scant allowance of beer and cheap cake, and the old gentleman charged his guests fifty cents each for the "supper."

JOSH BILLINGS correctly remarks—"Success in life is very apt tew make us forget the time when we wasn't very much. It is just so with the frog on the jump; he can't remember when he was tadpole—but other folks can."

THE Register gives publicity to the following sensational item: A young man by the name of Johnson has been arrested in Pittsburg for perpetrating a new "dodge." He fastened bristles on the tail of a rat and then sold him for a squirrel.

A COUNTRYMAN going to market with a load of pork was met by a young girl, who very genteelly made him a low courtesy, when he exclaimed: "What! do you make a courtesy to dead hogs?"—"No sir," answered the girl, "to live ones!"

REMARKABLE SUPERSTITION.

The Monongahela Republican has the following: Not long ago the young and beautiful wife of one of our citizens was called to her final account, leaving her husband disconsolate, sad, bereft. She was buried in the adjacent cemetery, and the husband returned to his desolate home—but not to forget the loved one. She was present with him by day in spirit and in his dreams at night. One peculiarity of his dreams, and one that haunted him, being repeated night after night, was this, that the spirit of his wife came to his bedside and told him that the undertaker had not removed from her face the square piece of muslin or napkin which had been used to cover her face after death, but had screwed down her coffin lid with it upon her; that she could not breath in her grave, but was unrest on account of the napkin. He tried to drive the dream away, but it bided with him by night and troubled him by day. He sought the consolations of religion; his pastor prayed with and assured him that it was wicked to indulge such morbid fancy. It was the subject of his petition before the Throne of Grace, but still the spirit came and told anew the story of her suffocation. In despair he sought the undertaker, Mr. Dickey, who told him that the napkin had not been removed, but urged him to forget the circumstance as it could not be any possible annoyance to inanimate clay. While the gentlemen acknowledged this, he could not avoid the apparition, and the continual stress upon his mind began to tell upon his health. At length he determined to have the body disinterred, and visited the undertaker for the purpose. Here he was met with the same advice and persuasion, and convinced once more of his folly, the haunted man returned to his home. That night, more vivid than ever, more terribly real than before, she came to his bedside, and upbraided him for his want of affection, and would not leave him until he had promised to remove the cause of all her suffering. The next night, with a friend, he repaired to the sexton, who was prevailed upon to accompany them, and there, by the light of the cold, round moon, the body was lifted from its narrow bed, the coffin lid unscrewed, and the napkin removed from the face of the corpse. That night she came to his bedside once more, but for the last time. Thanking him for his kindness, she pressed her cold lips to his cheek, and came again no more. Reader, this is a true story; can you explain the mysteries of dreams?

PARASITES ON CANARIES.

Parasites are among the most deadly enemies of canary birds, goldfinches and other household pets. Many people have observed a bird in a state of excitement and anxiety plucking at himself continually, his feathers standing all wrong. In vain is his food changed, and in vain is another saucer of clean water always kept in his cage, and all that kindness can suggest for the little prisoner done, but still all is of no use; he is no better, because the cause of his wretchedness has not been found out. If the owner of a pet in such difficulties will take down the cage and look up to the roof, there will most likely be seen a mass of stuff looking as much like red rust as anything, and thence comes the cause of the poor bird's uneasiness. The red rust consists of myriads of parasites infesting the bird, and for which water is no remedy. By procuring a lighted candle, and holding it under every particle of the top of the cage till all chance of anything being left alive is gone, the remedy is complete. The

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, NOV. 1, 1867.

NATIONAL THANKSGIVING.

President Johnson has issued a proclamation recommending Thursday, the 28th day of November inst., as a day of "national thanksgiving and praise to the Almighty Ruler of Nations." The people of the United States have abundant reasons for thankfulness to the "giver of every good and perfect gift" for the numerous blessings showered down upon them. Let all join in praise and thanksgiving.

The following is the President's proclamation:

PROCLAMATION OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

In conformity with a recent custom, that may now be regarded as established on national consent and approval, I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, do hereby recommend to my fellow-citizens that Thursday, the twenty-eighth day of November next, be set apart and observed throughout the republic as a day of national thanksgiving and praise to the Almighty Ruler of Nations, with whom are dominion and power, who maketh peace in His high places.

Resting and refraining from secular labors on that day, let us reverently and devotedly give thanks to our Heavenly Father for the mercies and blessings with which He has crowned the now closing year. Especially let us remember that He has covered our land, through all its extent, with greatly needed and very abundant harvests; that He has caused industry to prosper, not only in our fields, but also in our workshops, in our mines, and in our forests. He has permitted us to multiply ships upon our lakes and rivers, and upon the high seas, and at the same time to extend our iron roads so far into the secluded places of the continent as to guarantee speedy overland intercourse between the two oceans. He has inclined our hearts to turn away from domestic contentions and commotions, consequent upon a distracting and desolating civil war, and to walk more and more in the ancient way of loyalty, conciliation, and brotherly love. He has blessed the peaceful efforts with which we have established new and important commercial treaties with foreign nations, while we have, at the same time, strengthened our national defenses, and greatly enlarged our national borders.

While thus rendering the unanimous and heartfelt tribute of national praise and thanksgiving, which is so justly due to Almighty God, let us not fail to implore Him that the same divine protection and care which we have hitherto so undeservedly, and yet so constantly enjoyed, may be continued to our country and our people throughout all their generations forever.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this twenty-sixth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and of the Independence of the United States the ninety-second.

ANDREW JOHNSON.

THE BURDEN OF TAXATION.

That the enormous taxation under which the people groan had much to do with the results of the recent elections, is not doubted by reflecting men. Even fair-minded Republicans admit it.

In a recent number of the New York Times, Republican, appeared an able article, reviewing the political situation, and pointing out some of the causes which press heavily upon business at the present time, and will continue to do so until removed by wise and prudent legislation. The Times says:

The taxation of the country is beginning to be a subject of the gravest importance, and of the deepest interest to all classes of the people. It comes home to everybody's hearth-stone. It effects more directly and more seriously the daily comfort of every man, woman and child in the land, than all other political questions put together. Taxation now falls with heavier weight upon us than upon any other people in the world.

And another necessity quite as imperative upon the party in possession of power, is a more equitable distribution of taxation among the industries that are forced to bear it.

This view of the case is strengthened and fortified by the New York Commercial Advertiser, which attributes the late defeat of the Radical cause in a great measure to the "unsettled condition of our currency and finances." It remarks:

It is useless to deny the fact that our onerous tax laws and the unsettled condition of our currency and finances cause a great deal of discontent. The Republican party may not be justly chargeable with the responsibility of all the financial difficulties of the country, because no inconsiderable proportion of them constitute the necessary penalties of our exhaustive civil war. But the Republicans are responsible for everything that tends uselessly to aggravate and increase our financial burdens, and thus political opponents will promptly improve any popular discontent upon the subject to their own advantage. We already see indications of a financial agitation that can only be prevented by energetic and wise action.

Congress can bring about the much needed relief, by at once restoring the Union, and legislating for the interest of the whole people, instead of the negro exclusively. Will Congress address itself to so salutary a work?

THE "Reconstruction" policy of Congress has been condemned by the people. The late elections decided that issue. Will Congress obey the voice of the majority? Will they abandon their revolutionary and anarchical measures and return within the pale of the constitution? If they will not take the popular hint to retrace their steps, they must look out for a less mild corrective next time. If they persist in their "Reconstruction" tyranny, the majorities against them in the Middle and Western States will not be counted by hundreds, but by hundreds of thousands. The verdict of the people must be obeyed.

THE Democracy of Pittsburg had a grand torchlight procession on Saturday night in honor of the late victories, and Judge Thurman, of Ohio, the Democratic candidate for Governor, made an able and eloquent speech to the largest political gathering ever assembled in that city. During the progress of the meeting some Radical rowdies threw brickbats into the crowd, and two or three persons were struck. One of the rascals was caught and justly punished. The day when Democratic meetings can be assailed with impunity has passed away.

THE Lancaster Intelligencer truly remarks:—The election is over, but the labor of the true Democrat is never. "The price of liberty is eternal vigilance." Let the organization of the party be perfected, and let a systematic effort be made in every election district to extend the circulation of sound Democratic newspapers. That will effect more than anything else. Let every subscriber to the COMPILER see what he can do in this important matter.

AT a meeting of Radical negroes held at Quincy, Florida, October 9th, the following platform was adopted:

1 Universal suffrage.
2 Eligibility of blacks as jurors and office-holders.
3 A general disfranchisement of Southern whites.
4 Social equality.

A nice platform, and one which we commend to the Radicals of this county.

THE ELECTION IN VIRGINIA.

They have had an election in Old Virginia—not an election conducted as such important affairs should be in a Republic, but on the new patent plan of the Radicals. First, a very large proportion of the whites were disfranchised, and then all the negroes who could be found in actual existence were registered as legal voters, and a heavy per centage of fictitious George Washingtons, Thomas Jeffersons, James Madisons, and other popular names, were added to the lists, to be used as a reserve force, and with their clothes changed to be voted twice in the same district, or, without a change of clothing, half a dozen times in different wards of the cities. The Radical tickets were printed on colored paper, (as was appropriate,) and any negro approaching the polls with a white ticket in his hand had it taken from his fingers, and one of the loyal yellow cast substituted in its place. If he persisted in a desire to vote a Conservative ticket, or was suspected of doing so, he was threatened, and set upon with cries of "kill him! kill him!" It was with some difficulty that the military forces in Richmond prevented the black followers of Hunnicutt and Underwood from murdering such men in the streets. In that city the election was to be kept open two days, but the second day's poll showing a white majority, the election was continued a third day, to enable the Radicals to bring in a sufficient reserve force of negroes from the surrounding country districts to change the result.

These are all facts. They can neither be explained away nor denied. It is thus that a Radical victory has been gained in Old Virginia. The whites voted the Conservative ticket almost to a man, but by negro votes, thus controlled, the State has been carried, and a mongrel convention, composed of part whites and part negroes, will sit to revise the Constitution.

We ask Northern men, of all parties, to look at this spectacle, and consider it in all its bearings. To adopt the language of a contemporary, (the Lancaster Intelligencer,) how long can our Republican institutions continue if the party in power is allowed to employ such means to continue its rule? The pretended election which converted the French Republic into an Empire, and placed Louis Napoleon on a throne, was free and respectable compared to this saturnalia of negro despots in Virginia. The recent election in Mexico, where no one dared to vote unless he voted the ticket settled by the military authorities, was decent and dignified in comparison. How long will it take the masses of the so-called Republican party in Pennsylvania and elsewhere to see that their liberties, their material interests—all the things they hold dear and sacred in life, are directly imperiled by the infamous course of the Radicals in Congress? A triumph for these men at the coming Presidential election would be the greatest possible disaster which could befall this nation. We believe the honest men of all parties begin to see that very clearly.

A NEGRO VIGILANCE COMMITTEE IN RICHMOND.—The negroes of Richmond have begun the war of races. They have formed a Vigilance Committee, and are ordering white men to leave the city.—On Saturday morning Mr. W. A. Monroe received the following threatening letter:

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 25, 1867.

We, the colored people of the city of Richmond, having formed a vigilance committee, warn you to leave the city in forty-eight hours after receiving this notice. We are aware of your hostile feelings towards Mr. Hunnicutt and his political party. If your family choose to go with you they can do so, or they can remain; we will not interfere with them. If you do not heed this warning, you will have to abide by the consequences. After you have spoken of Mr. Hunnicutt as you have, we are fully determined that you shall leave the city at the expiration of the time given you.

By order of the committee.

T. B. G., Secretary.

Similar letters were received by other persons. What security for life or property can there be in a community in which negroes thus take the laws into their own hands?

SAMPLE SPECIMENS.—In Mecklenburg county, Virginia, the Radicals succeeded in electing two suitable candidates. A correspondent of the Richmond Enquirer says:

Their nominees were John Watson (negro) and Sanford Dodge, a man (!) with a white skin. The former, I am informed, on the best authority, was a notorious thief in times of slavery, and was sold no less than five times. He can neither read nor write. The latter came (I believe) from the North, is an ex-minister of the gospel, (but still continues to preach) and was in the employment of John Morris as whiskey rectifier before his distillery was siezed by the government, for swindling, and himself lodged in jail.

These are, we have no doubt, fair average samples of the Virginia Radicals. In Mecklenburg county not a single white vote was cast for these vagabonds or in favor of the Convention. In Fauquier county only three whites voted the Radical ticket. So it was elsewhere in the State.

THE polls in Richmond were not only kept open a third day, contrary to law, but the voting was continued the last day until midnight. In the darkness any and every negro who chose to approach the polls was allowed to deposit a Radical ticket. Thus Hunnicutt, Underwood, a renegade Irishman and two negroes were elected. Throughout the State the two races voted almost unanimously against each other. Not one negro in a hundred voted the Conservative ticket. About the same proportion of whites voted with the negroes.

HUNNICUTT'S WORK COMMENCED.—Our news coulmns are already beginning to be filled with instances in which Hunnicutt's precepts are being put into practice, by his incendiaries of the torch brigade. In Roanoke county a barn and contents burned; in Mecklenburg county another; in Henrico county, Col. Carrington's barn and wheat, carriage and other property, were burned on Sunday morning; in Hanover, the residence of Col. Fontaine, President of the Virginia Central railroad, with all his furniture; besides several other cases in town and country. All these fires are due directly to the torch of incendiary negroes, who have learned their lessons in Hunnicutt's school.—Richmond (Va.) Examiner.

IN Alabama the Radicals bought the votes of thousands of negroes with slips of paper which they called land-warrants—a printed premise to furnish the holder with a forty-acre lot and a mule after the election. A number of negroes, in a hurry for their reward, brought their "warrants" into Columbus, the other day, and offered them at a discount for ready cash. This is but one of the many infamous schemes of the Radicals to secure supremacy for themselves.

THE Tennessee Legislature has passed a law making it a criminal offence to make any distinction between negroes and white people in public conveyances. With the Radicals everywhere the negro is the chief object of concern.

A CONTEMPLATED OUTRAGE.

From the Chambersburg Spirit.

Several of the Democratic candidates for the Senate and House of Representatives of our State have been elected by comparatively small majorities. The wonder is, considering how infamously the State was gerrymandered by the Republicans, that they have been elected at all. But it is proposed now to cheat them out of the positions to which they have been honestly elected by the people of their respective districts. The Harrisburg Telegraph, published by as unprincipled a wretch as lives, calls upon the Radical majority of the Legislature to oust these men and put the defeated candidates in their places. They have been in the habit of doing this for the last seven years. Acting upon the theory that "might makes right" they have not hesitated to dispossess Democrats of their official places without any pretence that there was any law to justify their action. In our own Senatorial District, Mr. Duncan was elected in 1865 as fairly as any man was ever chosen by the people. Everybody knew that there was no illegality in or about that election sufficient to warrant the Senate in setting it aside, and yet he was only allowed to occupy his seat for a week or ten days. Republicans here positively blushed with shame at this outrage upon Mr. Duncan's individual rights, and at such a wanton, deliberate disregard of the clear and unmistakable choice of the people. It was conceded all round that the investigation by the Senatorial committee was a mere sham, there being a fixed determination to give the seat to McConaughy, regardless of law, justice, equity and the particular merits of the case. Last year this Senatorial District condemned McConaughy by a majority of 23. This year, it speaks trumpet-tongued against the party to which he belongs, by a majority of 581.

We might cite other instances, both in the State and National Legislatures, whose injustice is equally glaring and notorious, but this will suffice. What we have to say now is, that it is time for the Conservative press to speak out against this system of gross wrong and stupendous fraud. It is time for the people to say that they will not tolerate any longer this carrying out of a premeditated and pre-arranged plan to defeat the popular will. If constitutional forms are to be set at naught, or if followed, only used for the accomplishment of such nefarious purposes, the sooner the people take the remedy into their own hands, the better. When we are beaten we are in favor of submission, and when we are victorious we insist on reaping the fruits of our victory. When we elect men to offices fairly, we submit that it is our bounden duty to see to it that these men are allowed to perform the duties of their offices, and that by no trick or chicanery shall the men whom the people have condemned through the ballot-box, be substituted for those whom they have chosen. Let the Telegraph and all kindred sheets—let its publisher and editor and all kindred spirits—understand that in times like this, when a great revolution is sweeping over the land, it is exceedingly perilous to attempt to thwart the distinctly uttered wishes of the masses. Forbearance may cease to be a virtue. As a minority, we always asserted our rights —as a majority, we are determined to maintain them. The men who have been legally chosen to the Senate and House of Representatives must be allowed to take and remain in their seats. No trumped-up charges of illegal voting—no deserter-disfranchising laws passed in direct violation of our Constitution, and no strained construction of our election statutes, will be held sufficient to justify a general ouster of the conservatives who have received certificates of election.—Honesty must supplant dishonesty in our legislative halls. This system of corruption, bribery and wholsale sacrifice of honor for partisan purposes must be broken up.

All we ask is that the same rules that the Radicals apply to the members of their own party shall be applied to Democrats, and that no Democrat shall be thrown out of his place for any reason which would not be deemed sufficient to dispossess a Radical of his seat also. We do not wish to indulge in threats, we do not seek to intimidate anybody, but we simply desire to inform this Hessian that the Democracy intend to see to it that the men whom they have elected shall fill the positions to which they have been chosen, and that they will not be particular about putting gloves on their hands to deal with the scoundrels who are casting about for ways and means to frustrate the legally and honestly expressed choice of the people.

THE Radicals deny that we have Democratic gains in Indiana, and yet refuse to give the facts and figures in connection with the recent election in that State. The Democratic gains are full as large as in the other States, considering the importance of the election. We have returns from thirty-five counties in that State, in which there is a Democratic gain of eleven thousand six hundred and ten, from last year. Of these thirty-five counties, we gain twelve which were carried by the Radicals one year ago. There are ninety-two counties in the State, and the Radical majority in 1866 was 14,202. The reactionary tide has reached Indiana as well as all the other States. That fact is demonstrated by the result. If the election had been for State officers, and the question of negro suffrage and equality fairly presented, the Democratic victory in Indiana would have rivaled that of Ohio. As it is, Indiana may safely be placed in the Democratic column for the Presidential election. No matter who the Radicals may nominate for President, he will have to carry the irrepressible negro, and that will swing all the Western States against him. The West will not accept the negro, even if united with spurs and shoulder-straps.—Age.

SOBERING THE RADICALS.—We clip the following from that independent Republican sheet, the Springfield (Mass.) Republican:

"Senator Howard, of Michigan, wrote a letter recently in favor of impeachment, which he was persuaded to withhold from publication till after the election of Tuesday. It is likely now to be suppressed altogether. The truth is, that the result of the elections has had a suddenly sobering influence, like a bucket of cold water on the head of a drunken man, and the inclination now will be to moderate and reasonable councils. The scheme of Butler and Wade to depose the President first and impeach him afterwards will no more be heard of, and impeachment itself will only be named by the more impulsive politicians. The schemes for confiscation, for reconstructing the governments of Maryland and Kentucky, and for establishing equal suffrage by law of Congress in all the States, have all gone by the board."

IT will meet, finally, at a great Bar, to receive judgment for deliberate wickedness that is utterly without example in the history of nations.—World.

IMPEACHMENT OF GEARY.

The Radicals are so thoroughly disgusted with Geary, that they will thank us for suggesting a measure for their relief, as well as one that will rescue the State from the rule of this brainless piece of inflated vanity. The Constitution of Pennsylvania provides that "the Governor and all other civil officers under this Commonwealth, shall be liable to impeachment for any misdemeanor in office." We charge Geary with a misdemeanor in office, in endeavoring to poll illegal and fraudulent votes at the late election. The case is as clear as proof can make it out, and if he was an ordinary official—an election officer in any county of the State—he would be proceeded against instanter, on the motion of the prosecuting attorney of the county.

A few days before the election, Geary secretly commissioned a Radical politician, under the seal of Pennsylvania, to take the votes of the Pennsylvania soldiers—in the regular army, remember—stationed at Fort Delaware, near Philadelphia. This official, when he made application to the commander of the post, was told such an election was illegal; but he persisted, and returned nearly two hundred fraudulent votes, which were counted by the Radical judges, and returned to Harrisburg with the vote of Philadelphia county.

Governor Geary is responsible for this whole proceeding. It was without the shadow of law. He assumed to himself authority not granted by the laws; and the case would not have been an iota stronger against him, had he sent an agent to Ireland or Germany to pick up votes for Williams. The men whose votes he succeeded in forcing into the political canvass were not voters, and the manner in which Geary got their votes was an unwarranted and illegal exercise of power.

If this fraud on the part of the Governor of the State does not constitute a misdemeanor in office, we would like to know the nature of that offence. He should be made to pay the penalty of his crime. An Executive who will descend to the lowest description of political jugglery to poll fraudulent votes, should not be continued in office one day longer than it is necessary to get rid of him. He is an unsafe man.

Suppose Stanton had been Secretary of War, with a close contest, such as that we have passed through, pending in the State, he could—and doubtless would—very quietly have distributed sufficient regular soldiers through the Commonwealth to have turned the political scales, and secured a Radical triumph. With Geary in the Executive chair to poll the votes, and Radical Return Judges to count and return them, the whole matter could have been very easily managed.

THE New York World says the Radical Committee of that State are making a most desperate effort to raise money to corrupt voters. They have demanded money from all the notaries public, assessed the city firemen and the employees of the Health Board; they have sent dunning letters to merchants and business men, and are now levying a tax on postmasters, and demanding two per cent. from all clerks under them. These demands are made in the most peremptory manner, as though they had a right to command the purse of every man who has money. The World states, however, that even the fortunes they made by plundering the canals will not save them from utter rout.

FORNEY, the United States Senate's Secretary, says the Republicans of Pennsylvania, though beaten, are not disheartened, and will reorganize on a more radical basis. A more Radical than the present party basis? Military despotism, debt and taxation, negro domination at the South, special privileges for a few at the expense of the many; the Constitution ignored, the Executive and the Supreme Court considered as unworthy of regard, the will of Congress proclaimed to be the supreme law, and venality and corruption permeating every branch of the public service—is that basis not radical enough?

RETURNS from thirty-four counties in California render it certain that both Sprague and Fitzgerald, the Democratic candidates, are elected by a handsome majority. What becomes of the boasts of the Radicals that they would redeem the State at this election? It must be a great consolation for them to reflect that revolutions never go backward.

AN exchange says Gov. Geary connected himself with a church about the first of October and on the sixth commissioned Mitchell to take the fraudulent soldiers' vote at Fort Delaware. It thinks he is a very rough sort of Christian.

THE Curtin men of this State are shouting for Grant for President—to "head off" Simon Cameron.

THE infamous Parson Brownlow has been elected U. S. Senator by the Radical Legislature of Tennessee. Radicalism stops at no outrage.

RESOLUTIONS favoring the nomination of Gen. Grant for the Presidency were introduced at a meeting of the Central Republican Association of Washington City, on Friday night last, but were bitterly opposed and voted down.

THE Virginia "election" has resulted in the selection of 30 Conservative delegates and 60 Radicals—18 of the latter being negroes.

THE Cincinnati Gazette, whose chief editor is a defeated Radical candidate for Congress, says: "No one need deny that there is a reaction against the Radical policy of making black States in the South."

TOWN, COUNTY AND SURROUNDING COUNTIES.

Straban Infantry.—A Military Company has just been formed in Straban and surrounding townships, under the name of "Straban Infantry." The following officers were elected at Hunterstown on Saturday last: Captain, E. G. Heagy; First Lieutenant, A. King; Second Lieutenant, J. L. Toy. The non-commissioned officers will be chosen to-morrow evening, at 6 o'clock, when every member will be required to be present. The Company numbers 83 men, and will, we are sure, prove a creditable organization.

A Negro Commits a Rape upon a White Girl in Adams County.—We learn that, some days ago, a negro named Hall, committed a hellish assault upon a white girl in the neighborhood of Littlestown. It seems that the negro approached the house of a Mr. Clouser, and finding no one at home but the daughter, went in, and, violently taking hold of the girl, tied her clothes in such a manner as to enable him to accomplish his devilish purpose. The girl appeared before Esquire Bishop in Littlestown and gave a statement of the facts, when a warrant was issued for the negro's arrest. He was arrested, and five hundred dollars bail demanded. Hall induced the constable to go a short distance into the country with him to procure the necessary security, but on the way back made his escape, since which time he has not been heard of. We are for obeying the laws in every particular, but it really seems to us that the repeated outrages of negroes upon white females must soon wear out the patience of white men.

Property Sales.—The following real estate sales have recently taken place in Bendersville and vicinity:

Capt. H. N. Minnigh has sold his house and lot in Bendersville, to John Bender, for $1,500.

Wm. Overdeer has sold his house and part lot of ground, in Bendersville, to Capt. H. N. Minnigh, for $1,400.

Rachel Bender has sold her house and lot in Bendersville, to George W. Tipton, for $800.

John Cullings has sold his house and lot in Bendersville, to Wm. A. Yeatts, for $1,600.

The following sales are reported from New Oxford and neighborhood:

Jacob Martin has sold to Jacob Stock about two acres of land on Peters street and Berlin road, for $865; and his tavern stand and 8 lots to Henry Wiest, for $6,000, taking in exchange as part pay Wiest's house and lot at $2,400.

George W. Thomas has sold his house and four acres on the pike, west of town, to George Louck, for $2,900.

Alex. Jacobs has sold his brick house and blacksmith shop, on Baltimore street, to Cornelius Miller, for $1,275.

Jer. W. Diehl has sold his two-story brick house and lot, on Pitt street, with 8 acres, to John Shugh, for $4,000.

Samuel McTaggart has soldhis frame house and two lots on Baltimore street, to John Hershey, for $1,275.

Edward Tully has sold his house and 4 acres, one mile south of town, on Kohler mill road, to John C. Zouck, for $850.

Arrest.—Officer Rouser, on Monday night last, arrested, at the house of Charles Price, near this place, a man calling himself Henry Dixon, charged with firing Lerew's large new hotel stable in Carlisle, last week. He had been arrested in Carlisle, but made his escape. He is represented as a desperate character, of great strength, and his arrest reflects credit on Detective Rouser.

Stolen.—The shoemaker shop of Christian Weisensale, in Union township, was entered on the night of the 15th inst., and eleven pairs of new shoes and a quantity of leather stolen therefore. The thief, who had a wagon, was traced as far as Kitzmiller's dam.

Iron Ore.—We are told that fifteen tons of iron ore are excavated daily from the bank on the farm of Peter Comfort, in Franklin township. Ore has also been discovered on several neighboring farms.

Dedication.—The new Methodist E. Church in Petersburg, (Y. S.,) will be dedicated on Sunday, the 10th inst. See advertisement.

Patent.—Among the patents issued for the week ending October 22, was one to M. A. Keller, of Littlestown, for an improvement in harvesters.

Accident.—Dr. O'Neal, our neighbor, cut his right hand severely, the other day, whilst corking a bottle, which suddenly went to pieces in his hand. The hurt will, no doubt, be all right in a few days.

The Oriental is a stove which requires feeding but once a day, which radiates a gentle and delightful heat without burning the impurities in the air, which will keep fire for one or more days without any attention, is a complete ventilator of the room, is simple and easily managed, which does not clinker or clog, and is economical in the use of coal, and withal a powerful heater, and in point of style and beauty has never been excelled. The Orientals are cheaper, and guaranteed to give more heat, than the corresponding numbers of any other swing-top stoves in the market.

S. G. Cook is the only agent for the Oriental in Gettysburg. tf

A Chance for Bargains.—Our readers will be glad to learn that Fahnestock Brothers have made a considerable reduction in the prices of Dry Goods during the past week. They are now selling Calicoes at prices almost as low as before the war—Delaines as cheap as they were ever offered—and Muslins at very much reduced rates. Persons desiring any kinds of goods, will find them having the most complete assortment, and at prices astonishingly low. It

Ready-Made Clothing.—Col. F. B. Picking has just received an unusually large stock of Ready-made Clothing of all kinds for men and boys, which have been bought at reduced prices, and will be sold lower than ever. Give him a call, at the old stand, on Baltimore street, opposite the "Star and Sentinel" office. It

To get a good set of Furs, you need only go to Row & Woods, who are bringing down prices to the lowest point. It

New Firm in New Oxford.—Messrs. James and Paul Hersh have taken the Warehouse of D. Hoke, in New Oxford, and will continue the Grain and Produce business. See their advertisement in another column. They are active business men, and will spare no effort to accommodate the public and please all who may patronize them.

If the Ladies want the latest styles of Hats, Plumes, &c., for winter, Row & Woods' Store is the place to get them.

New Arrangement.—Mr. L. V. B. Soper has bought out Mr. Feistel, opposite the old Bank, where he continues the watch-making and jewelry business.

The Fashions.—Overcoats to the knees; very tight pants, like those worn thirty years ago, and silk hats, with low crowns and broad brims; such are men's fashions for the coming season.

Bass.—Some enterprising individual, a few years ago, brought from one of the western rivers a number of Bass, which he introduced into the Potomac near Cumberland, Md. These fish increased rapidly and that river is now well filled with them. A number of lovers of piscatorial sport, believing that they would also propagate in the Conococheague, determined to procure a number of them and give the matter a trial. In pursuance of this design, Messrs. A. J. Miller, Jacob Keller and Jacob Mickey visited the Potomac last week, and returned with nearly one hundred, which were placed in the creek at Scotland. Some of the fish brought by these gentlemen weighed upwards of three pounds each. We have no doubt that in a very few years, the Conococheague will be well stocked with this excellent fish, affording fine sport to the disciples of old Isaac Walton, and furnishing a rich dish to the epicure.—Chambersburg Spirit.

Encounter with Bears.—On Thursday last, Porter M. Skinner and David Cowan were out on the mountain, a few miles from Fannettsburg, this county, looking after cattle, when they discovered three bears on one tree. The bears attempted to escape, but, as the party had neither guns or dogs, were prevented from doing so by the free use of clubs and stones. One of the party then stood sentinel, while the other went some two miles for a gun. The first one shot at was wounded and fell to the ground, but not so badly hurt but that he was able to show fight. After a severe encounter, however, they succeeded in dispatching him with their clubs. The second one they shot dead, while the third one made his escape. The gentlemen were unlinured. This is altogether the tallest bear hunt of the season. Bears appear to be unusually plenty on the North Mountain this season. Two have been captured alive in the neighborhood of McConnellsburg.—Chambersburg Repository.

Soothing and Healing.—We might with truth add, certainly curing in every case. No remedy known equals Coe's Cough Balsam, for Coughs, Colds, Croup and Consumption. It is an old and tried friend, and always proves true.

A Startling Truth!—Thousands die annually from neglected coughs and colds, which soon ripen into consumption, or other equally fatal diseases of the Lungs; when by the timely use of a single bottle of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry their lives could have been preserved to a green old age.

Port Wine.—There have been, at various times, articles introduced to the public under the name of Port Wine, strongly recommended for medicinal purposes, which are calculated to do more harm than good, having little else than the name to recommend them. Such, however, is not the case with the Port Grape Wine advertised by Mr. A. Speer, of Passaic, N. J. We have seen his vineyard, and the wine in process of manufacture, and know it to be the pure juice of the grape. We have also been through his cellars, which never contain less than sixty thousand gallons, and seen casks piled on casks maturing. Mr. Speer does not bottle or sell any under four years of age.—Peoria Transcript.

Predictions About the Winter.—We see it generally stated that European meteorologists are predicting an early and hard winter this year, for the reason that the birds of passage have begun their migration southward at least a month earlier than usual. Storks, wild ducks and other birds, are reported to be passing southward over France and Belgium in large numbers. Similar signs of a severe winter have, from time to time, been noted in our country, and we are inclined to attach more importance to them than weather prophesies usually deserve. Meteorologists say a wet summer signifies a dry winter, and dry winters are proverbially cold. Housekeepers should make a note of this inference, which we think will prove correct.—Doylestown Democrat.

Phineas Davis.—One of the smallest watches ever made in the United States, was the handiwork of an ingenious Quaker mechanic, named Phineas Davis, residing at York, Pennsylvania. It was less in size than a silver dime, and kept accurate time. The maker of this watch was also the builder of the first iron steamboat in the United States. This iron steamer, which was not a large one, was built in the town of York, also, and was hauled on wagons or trucks to the Susquehanna, at Peach Bottom, where it was used for many years as a ferry boat.—Exchange.

Godey's Lady's Book.—Godey for November is at hand. Its different departments are well filled with the subjects on which they treat. The steel plate, "Woeful Heart," is splendid, as is the tinted "Scene in Venice." The colored fashion plate is up to the usual standard. This would be a good time to commence getting up new clubs for the coming year. One copy, 1 year, $3; two copies, 1 year, $5 50. Address L. A. Godey, northeast corner of Sixth and Chestnut streets, Philadelphia.

Careful handling, at every step, from gathering the fruit from the branch, to the final delivery of the packages, is essential to its reaching the distant market and the customer in good order.

EX-SATRAP SHERIDAN is "swinging round the circle" of Yankeeland like a wet dishrag. The late reaction against Radicalism has taken the starch entirely out of him. He couldn't get the Radical nomination for the Presidency now even by going down on his knees to beg for it.—Patriot & Union.

A GEORGIA paper publishes a statement of the amounts deposited in the Freedmen's Savings Bank, for the month of September. "Twenty-four cents" is the reported amount deposited at Wilmington.

NEAR Sherman, Texas, recently, Mrs. Beatty, a widow lady, met her death in a most singular manner. She was in the act of getting on a horse, when a common sewing kneedle, which stuck in her dress, caught in the saddle and was driven in her body near her breast, slightly piercing her heart. She lived only about half an hour.

IT costs two millions of dollars a year to support a regiment of cavalry upon the plains.

THE GETTYSBURG SPRING IN NEW YORK.

The Gettysburg Spring is beginning to create a sensation in the great cities. In Philadelphia, the leading medical journal, and the eminent medical author, Dr. John Bell, have honored this Spring with such complimentary notices as have never been bestowed on any American Spa.

In New York, the leading newspapers have vied with each other in celebrating the curative virtues of this Spring, and in recording, in the minutest particular, the circumstances of its discovery, its location, and the associations which cling around it. But amid this universal praise, this chorus of hosannas, a John Hooks has appeared, who lustily clamors "beef!" "beef!" The effusion of the editor of the Evening Mail is so eloquently, so artistically written, that we republish it as a literary curiosity.

The assumption of the editor that the cures of this Spring are fabulous, will be appreciated in this community, where so many of the subjects of its cures reside:

Ghouls.—Are the reports which have been circulated concerning a wonderful spring at Gettysburg a mere advertising enterprise for the benefit of a new hotel which may be built there, or is there some foundation in fact for the remarkable accounts? The Ghouls of the Arabian Nights who live on corpses and roam the graveyards, are not confined to fiction. We have them in real life, and in all grades of society. We have the resurrectionists, for instance, who obtain a precarious living from corpses and the cemeteries. We have undertakers who wring money out of the sorrows of men and women for their dead friends. We have empirical doctors, and some in the regular profession, too, who live on death in collusion with the undertakers. We have emperors and diplomatists who build their reputations over the blood and bones of soldiers slain and women starved. We have ghouls in every station of life, high and low, rich and poor—some who skulk in dark alleys and ply their trade by night; others who feed upon death fearlessly, in the broad daylight, and with an air of pride. No form of ghoul, however, is more common than that of men who live upon the natural human fear of death: who take advantage of the pains and aches of their neighbors to fill their pockets with their neighbors' money. Such men concoct mixtures of herbs and alcohol and drugs, and call them "bitters," they roll paste and cheap medicine into pills by the ton, and sell them as specific remedies for all the diseases which frighten men and make them fear death. And now we have another ghoul who has found a spring near Gettysburg and proposes to turn it to his advantage, and feed on the diseases of humanity as so many of his fellow ghouls are doing. Wonderful stories begin to circulate in the papers about the healing power of this spring. Its waters have effected almost miraculous cures. Indian legends are told about it, and federal soldiers who drank of it in the great battle felt their strength renewed. Our ghoul is feeding on the gory memories of the great rebellion and our fallen soldiers, as he intends to do upon the diseases of his fellow-men. The Gettysburg ghoul will probably succeed. Ghouls generally do succeed. Many of them live in palaces. American ghouls drive four-in-hand at Saratoga and Long Branch. A Gallic ghoul resides in the Tuileries—the Gettysburg ghoul will undoubtedly be a prosperous ghoul. Being a ghoul is an excellent business in a financial way. Pecuniarily we envy ghouls.

GARIBALDI'S revolutionary movement in Italy is sure to fail. Victor Emmanuel has issued a proclamation denouncing it, and Louis Napoleon is sending troops to Italy to crush it. A number of conflicts have taken place between Garibaldi's troops and the forces of Rome, with varying success. The French, with Victor Emmanuel's help, however, will soon make an end of it.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, NOV. 3, 1867.

CREAM AND BUTTER.

The town of Rennes, in Brittany, is noted for its peculiar butter; the milk of the previous evening is mixed with the warm morning's milk, and the mixture allowed to stand for two or three hours, when the whole is churned.—Those who practice this plan claim that they thereby obtain a larger amount of butter of a more delicate flavor.

Near Glasgow, in Scotland, the product of two or three milkings is allowed to stand until the cream rises, say from 12 to 24 hours; all is then poured, and left still, until the mixture is sour. A tough skin is formed on the surface; great care must be taken that this skin does not get broken, for, should the air obtain entrance, fermentation will take place; this will injure the butter and spoil the buttermilk.

In Holland the milk of each milking is allowed to become sour (being repeatedly stirred to prevent the cream from rising to the surface and remaining there,) and as soon as a wooden spoon will stand in it, it is churned.

PRUNING DWARF PEARS.

This subject was pretty freely discussed by the horticulturists of Cleveland, Ohio, at a late meeting. Mr. Marshall said that some kinds of pears needed more pruning than others, but generally the neglect of pruning would soon result in the death of the tree, as the tree, if left to grow without check, would kill itself. Mr. Elliot said that the public generally wanted tall, straight trees, and in conformity to this, the nurserymen had got to trimming up the stems, leaving a few lateral branches, so as to form a little top. And again, they grew them so thick in the rows that they had but little chance to form that bushy head which was desirable. However, taking the tree as it came from the nursury, getting thrifty one-year old trees, if possible, he would cut back severely—that is, cut back all the laterals to one or two buds, and cut the top down enough to make the dormant buds in the stem about two feet high. The first year, he would do no more to it; the second spring he would cut back the last year's growth to two or three buds, leaving the tree in a round, bushy shape, getting the head as low and near the ground as possible. This process of spring pruning was to be continued until the head was formed, with, perhaps, some exceptions, to wit as one of them, if a tree grow very strong, as was sometimes the case, throwing up shoots four, six, or seven feet long, he would leave them until about the 20th of July, and then cut away about two-thirds of the previous year's growth. The reason for this is, that if cut in the spring, the vigor of the tree would cause a new growth of strong thrifty shoots; while, if left until the 20th of July, the growth would be checked, and the formation of fruit spurs induced. For the same reason, he would do much of his pruning by pinching in the ends of the limbs.

THE BEST TOMATO PICKLES.—Take one peck of green tomatoes, sliced, sprinkle them with salt, and let them stand until the next day, when drain them. Then use the following as spices: One ounce of mustard, one and a half-ounces of black pepper, one ounce of yellow mustard seed, one ounce of allspice. Put in the kettle a layer of spices and one of tomatoes alternately. Cover them with vinegar; wet the mustard before putting it in; let the whole boil fifteen or twenty minutes, and you will have pickles so good that you will be pestered by all your friends and neighbors asking you for a taste of them and a recipe.—Ohio Cultivator.

KEEPING CIDER SWEET.—The Utica Herald states that A. G. Williams, of Hampton, Oneida county, has a method of preserving cider worthy of being generally known. Allow the cider to work until it has reached the state most desirable to the taste, then add grated horseradish in the proportion of a tumbler and a half to the barrel of cider, and shake up well. This arrests fermentation, and after remaining a few weeks may be racked off in clean casks, and the air excluded by closing the bung. Cider preserved in this way has a pleasant, agreeable flavor.

JOHN SHIVELY, of Nelson, Wisconsin, went into his field last week and opening a stack of wheat found it wet. He said he would look at the other, and if that was wet too he would hang himself. It was wet and he shot the top of his head off.

IT would really seem that the ancients did surpass their descendants in the perfection of the arts. A fire and burglar proof safe, which has been subjected to a volcanic eruption, has been discovered among the ruins of Pompeii, its contents uninjured. It very much resembles modern safes.

A PARTY of divers at Nashville recently hooked on what they supposed was the safe of a steamer sunk some twenty years ago. After long and hard labor they succeeded in raising an old cooking stove.

A "DISTRESSED MOTHER" writes to the Allentown (Pa.) Democrat for advice, which she gets, thusly: "The only way to cure your son staying out 'late o' nights' is to break his legs, or else get the 'calico' he runs after to do your house work."

THE Spirit of Jefferson states that the fish "trap" near Mr. Manning's residence on the Shenandoah produced as much as one thousand eels in one night last week! And it wasn't a good night for eels, either!

A NEW grass originally from Japan, is rapidly spreading at the South. It is regarded as a great blessing to the South.

THE NEW WORK ON SINGING.

BASSINI'S

TWENTY MELODIC EXERCISES,

IN FORM OF

VOCALIZZI FOR SOPRANO OR MEZZO SOPRANO VOICES,

INTENDED AS

Studies to acquire the Art of Singing.

THESE exercises were composed to be used simultaneously with his system, THE ART OF SINGING, or with any other method for the culture of the voice, and will take the place of CONE'S SOLFEGGIOS; being more melodious and better adapted for teaching.

Some of these exercises are specially beautiful as well as useful, a mingling of the dulce et utile, which secures the interest as well as the improvement of the student. The various styles developed in these exercises render them invaluable in an educational point of view, as they tend to the large intelligence and appreciation, and at the same time form the taste of the pupil. They must be studied carefully with reference to the numerable marks of expression and forms of mentation. Upon the minute accuracy with which these are accomplished depends the actual ving advancement of the pupil; any evasion turing in these respects is time and effort sted, while, on the other hand, a close and paand investigation, and a minutely faithful exon of them, will give unexpected power and city, and open to the student the means and rces by which great artists produce their t brilliant and profound effects."—Watson's Journal.

AGENTS AND DEALERS IN

Albright, Ritkes & Schmidt, Chickering & Son, Bradbury, Knabe & Son, Gale & Son,

POTTY'S CELEBRATED

COTTAGE, HARMONIC AND BOUDOIR ORGANS AND MELODEONS.

These Instruments stand unrivalled by any thing found in this country or in Europe, as is admitted by all impartial judges. The most eminent Pipe Organ Builders and Performers, the last to discover excellence in reed Tone, pronounced them vastly superior to all others for exceedingly quick articulation and round Tone, the essential feature in instruments of this class. We invite the severe scrutiny and criticism of all.

PATENT VOX HUMANA TREMOLO.

This late and most wonderful invention (so acknowledged by all leading artists) will be found only in the Estey Instruments. In attempting to describe the effect of this stop, we are at loss for language. Its qualities cannot be written, but must be heard to be appreciated. By this stop an ordinary performer can produce an effect which requires a life time of practice for an artist upon a violin. It entirely changes the reed Tone, giving for sympathetic sweetness of the human voice, making it so melodious and pure that it never fails to enchant the listener.

CHURCH ORGANS

for Churches, Public Halls and Parlors has a powerful sub-Bass with independent reeds, Harmonic attachment and Vox Humana Tremolo, and is the most powerful reed organ ever made, being nearly equal to a Pipe Organ of three times the cost.

All instruments warranted for five years.

A liberal discount allowed for Churches and Sabbath Schools.

☞Instructions given both in Vocal and Instrumental Music, at our rooms, and at pupils' homes, either to individuals or classes, on reasonable terms.

Straban Infantry.—A Military Company have just been formed in Straban and adjoining townships, under the name of the Straban Infantry." The following officers were elected at Hunterstown on Monday last: Captain, E. G. Heagy; First Lieutenant, A. King; Second Lieutenant, J. L. Toy. The non-commissioned officers will be chosen to-morrow evening, at 6 o'clock, when every member will be required to be present. The company numbers 83 men, and will, we believe, prove a creditable organization.

A Negro Commits a Rape upon a White Girl in Adams County.—We learn that some days ago, a negro named Hall, committed a hellish assault upon a white girl, in the neighborhood of Littlestown. It seems that the negro approached the house of a Mr. Clouser, and finding no one at home but the daughter, went in. Shells, separates and seeds, rapidly and easily. It is one operation, as fast as the ears can be put into the hopper."

The undersigned is now prepared to dispose of COUNTY RIGHTS. He will have SHELLERS ready for sale in the course of a month's time.
